HENDERSON

Happy days are here again

by Moira McCullough

Nostalgia by the truckload and heaps of fun are on the agenda for Henderson High School's 50th Jubilee celebrations at Queen's Birthday weekend.

The event has the theme of 'Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow' and chair of the Jubilee Committee Mary Harrison says more than 1400 former and current pupils and staff are expected to join in the festivities.

"We have registrations from all over New Zealand and also from Australia, Canada and the United States. Response has been excellent," Mary says.

famous faces taking part during the weekend, she admits there are many Henderson High School old boys and girls who've made it to the top and represented their country in soccer, rugby and netball as well as business and music.

"My lips are sealed for now! We had a good turnout for the 25th Jubilee, a great turnout for the 45th and we're going to have a fabulous 50th Jubilee," she says.

Special guests include Peter Allen, a foundation staff member in 1953 and the school's principal from 1965-1978, former principal Doug Lilly (1979-1986) and Owen Hoskin, principal since 1998 until present. The school's first head girl Elaine Matthews (nee Ngakura), who now lives in the Hokianga, will also be a guest speaker.

Highlights during the weekend will include a 'cavalcade of fashions' through the decades with current pupils school uniforms, a sports afternoon, dinner-dance and mountains of reminiscing.

"We're planning to glean as much information from the 'remember when' stories to put into a school year book," Mary says. Lunches throughout the weekend's events will be available from the school Tuck Shop.
